

DEPT. 103-JR. SWINE
Superintendent - Jon Etta
JUDGING: Wednesday, 4:00 pm

- There will be no Breeding Division for Swine at the Fair. The swine show is terminal for 2020.
- Tack areas are limited, please bring only necessary items.
- Check – in: All hogs must arrive at the Fair with a certificate of veterinary inspection (health papers) and be checked in with the superintendent by 12:30pm on Tuesday. Hog check in begins at 10am. Any hogs unloaded before being checked in with the superintendent, will forfeit show rights. Health papers must have the Washington County Fair ear tag numbers written on them and be dated with-in the last 30 days. The certificate of veterinary inspection must state that all animals in the herd have been inspected on the farm within 30 days prior to the fair and no disease has been present in the herd for the last 30 days. All Fair paperwork will be collected at time of unloading this includes health papers, consignment/ethics/antibiotics.
- All hogs must be double tagged with Washington County Fair Identification day issued tags when arriving at the fair. All un-official tags (including sale or breeder tags) must be removed. If a tag is missing, the animal will not be eligible to show in a market class and will be subject to DNA testing at the exhibitors' expense. If a tag is lost during the feeding period, the superintendent, Jon Etta (262-808-6973), or the sale committee chairman, Jim Hawig (920-579-2040) must be notified within one week. Arrangements will be made to re-tag the animal as soon as possible. If upon re-tagging, the animal appears questionable, or the ear has healed, the animal may be DNA tested at the exhibitors' expense and it will not be eligible to show in a market class. If the DNA test does not match the sample submitted on identification day, or is not conclusive, the exhibitor will be ineligible to show in market class the next year also. Showmanship is not considered a market class.
- Weigh-in: Swine will be weighed pen by pen immediately following lambs, which start at 1pm on Tuesday.
- Conduct: No one is allowed in the show ring except those approved by the Superintendent.
- Exhibitors must do their own work; this is part of the learning process. Any mentoring by a project leader or breeder should be complete by the time of the Fair. Exhibitors need to get written permission from the Swine Superintendent to have anyone other than an immediate family member touch, handle, or prepare their pig. This includes going into the animal's pen. This rule will be in effect from 10:00am on Tuesday, to until all judging has been completed on Wednesday evening. This rule applies to anywhere on the fairgrounds. Other Washington County Junior Fair swine exhibitors and their family members can assist any exhibitor in penning or moving animals at any time. The immediate family is defined as a brother, sister, parent/guardian, step parent/guardian, or grandparent. The person receiving permission will receive a back tag or lanyard from the superintendent it identify such permission. This form if identification must be worn when handling the animal.
- Exhibitors and their families shall conduct themselves in an ethical manner and maintain honesty throughout this competitive environment, before, during and after the event. Should misconduct be discovered, the entry and exhibitor will not be allowed to compete. Should misconduct be discovered after the show, the exhibitor will be required to forfeit ribbons, championships, and premiums awarded.
- Barn Hours are posted in the barn. No one is allowed in the barn during closed hours, without Superintendent permission.
- Exhibitors who violate any of the rules may be prohibited from competition at future events.

In this scenario HBR Champion will not compete in the Grand Champion or Reserve Grand Champion drives.

Exhibitors may enter a maximum of 2 animals in Division A.

Exhibits that have been erroneously entered may, at the discretion of the department superintendent, be transferred to their proper classed prior to the judging.

Thank you cards must be turned in to the Superintendent by noon on Saturday.

To qualify for the Home Bred and Raised Market Class:

Any exhibitor who cannot prove ownership or does not meet all of these requirements, will show in the regular market class and will not be eligible for the Home Bred and Raised Market Class. Meat Animal Sale committee definitions will be used for sale recognition only and do not prove eligibility for this class.

All market animals will be divided as equally as possible into weight divisions based on weights when weighed on entry day.

Market barrows, market gilts, and home bred and raised market hogs will all show separately in different classes at the discretion of the Superintendent. New for 2021: Barrows and gilts may show together if it would allow for more even classes. Animals cannot be shown in more than one market class.
