CLOTHING REVUE

Clothing Revue Style Show will be held Wednesday evening at the Fair.
Judging is held in June, announced by separate email or mailing.

- All members enrolled in 4-H for FFA clothing construction project or equivalent, Quilting, Wool Spinning or Cultural Arts project may enter Clothing Revue.
- Entries will be judged on (1) suitability of garment for individual as to color and design; (2) accessorizing of garment; (3) general appearance, neatness, posture, and fit; (4) construction to the extent that it affects general appearance (Judges have the choice of inspecting clothing construction); (5) and/or creativity when appropriate for garment.
- No member can model more than 2 garments in Divisions E or F. A third garment can be modeled by someone else in Divisions E or F. Members may model up to 3 garments in Division G.
- Each member is expected to model the garment at the Fair. Premiums will be withheld if member does not model at the Fair. Conflicts will be reviewed on an individual basis. Request must be submitted in writing two weeks prior to the Fair.
- Clothing Revue Garments may be entered in the clothing exhibit Divisions under Dept. 126 (Divisions A, B, C) if the member is enrolled in the clothing project, in quilting exhibit Divisions under Dept. 128 (Division E) if the member is enrolled in the quilting project, or in cultural arts in the appropriate division for the item under Dept. 118.
- Each member is encouraged to bring patterns, guide sheets, or instruction sheets to answer questions during clothing revue judging.
- A Teen Choice Award will be presented at the Fair to two participants (beginning and advanced) receiving the highest votes from peers for the best outfit.
- A Judge's Choice Award will be presented at the Fair to two participants (beginning and advanced) that have made exceptional garments in the eyes of the judge.
- Clothing project members ages 12-19 may enter the Clothing Revue at the Wisconsin State Fair. Consult the website www.wistatefair.com/youthexpo for online entry forms and more information.

Anna Lhotka Memorial Award

Mrs. Anna Lhotka was a 4-H Leader for many years. She helped hundreds of 4-H members, especially in the Clothing Project and Clothing Revue. In her honor, the County 4-H Leaders Association established the Anna Lhotka Memorial Award. It will be presented each year to an outstanding 1st year 4-H member in the County Clothing Revue.

Laura Wolf Memorial Award

Laura Wolf was a 4-H clothing and food Leader for many years in the Slinger Happy Workers. Sewing was a passion of not only hers; but her children and great grandchildren. The family, in honor of Laura, will be presenting a $25.00 cash award to the outstanding advanced Clothing Revue Participant at the Washington County Clothing Revue held at the Washington County Fair.
