Exhibitors must sign-up to receive chicks at the county 4-H poultry project meeting in April, or contact the Superintendent before April 1st. Chicks will be delivered in May, and must be raised by the exhibitor until the Fair. Birds must be lean, fully feathered, and able to stand on both legs. The heaviest male and heaviest female birds meeting the above qualifications will win. Each exhibitor may only make one entry.

Class No. No Premiums Awarded

1. Rate of gain

DIVISION M - Poultry Costume Contest

Poultry are to be dressed in costume. Exhibitor is not required to dress in costume also, but may wear a costume if they choose to. Points will be awarded for creativity and originality.

Class No. No premiums Awarded

1. Poultry Costume Contest

DIVISION N - Home Bred and Raised

This class is for exhibitors who hatch their own chicks for the Fair. Exhibitors must collect the eggs themselves from their own adult birds, not simply purchase hatching eggs from another breeder. There are no age restrictions on the birds entered (they can be hatched before January 1st). Each exhibitor will show their best home-bred bird(s) following the conclusion of best in show judging to compete for "Best Home-Bred and Raised." A separate form must be submitted by noon on Tuesday of check-in to the home-bred and raised coordinator in order to participate, contact the superintendent for more information.
