DIVISION P- MARKET CLASS AND PERFORMANCE LAMB CLASS (ANY BREED)

Minimum Weight - 90 lbs. for Livestock Auction

Market Class entries may either be castrated males or female lambs.

Lambs will be weighed in, pen to pen starting at 1 pm Tuesday. Swine to be weighed in, pen to pen immediately following lambs. No free weigh-ins for lambs or swine.

- Performance Lamb Class emphasizes production agriculture and the exhibitor’s ability to select and raise lambs which will be evaluated on, and overall final placing; based upon Live Visual Appraisal and Ultrasound Carcass Evaluation.
- Live Show Component: Lambs will be shown on Wednesday. Lambs must be slick shorn.
- Ultrasound Carcass Component: Lamb carcass merit evaluated via ultrasound to generate a projected "Boneless Retail Product Yield" or "Lamb Carcass Index". Date and time TBD.

The exhibitor is not required to enter the Performance Lamb class as the ultrasound does require the application of oil on the animal for accurate readings. If you prefer not to participate, do not enter class 3 or 4.

If you have 1 market lamb, enter Class 1 and Class 3, if you have 2 market lambs enter Class 1, 2, 3 and 4. Exhibitors can enter up to two animals in Division P and all four classes below.

DIVISION U – LEAD CLASS

Date and Time: Sunday TBD

The Sheep Lead Class is a competition where entrants are judged on the fashion and fit of their wool garment (purchased or handmade) while leading a sheep. The purpose of this event is to promote the beauty and versatility of wool clothing for all occasion wear and to give youth the opportunity to exhibit and showcase their involvement in the sheep industry.

Class No. Premiums: $5.00, $4.00, $3.00, $2.00

1. Beginner, 8-11 years
 2. Intermediate, 12-14 years
 3. Senior, 15 and over
- A. Entrants must wear a garment made predominantly of wool. Garments may be purchased or constructed by or for the entrant and should be age appropriate and lend elegance to the class. This is not a costume class.
 - B. Sheep must be a ewe or wether (of any age), conditioned, fitted, and trained to show at halter. Rules for exhibiting sheep at the Washington County Fair will apply to these animals.
 - C. Entrants must provide a one-page commentary of 200 words or less to be read during the class including the following:
 - a. Description of the garment
 - b. Breed of sheep being led
 - c. Brief biography of entrant and involvement in sheep industry

Please write the commentary in the third-person as it will be read by the announcer (Example: “Sue is leading a Hampshire ewe...” not “I am leading a Hampshire ewe...”) Commentary must be typed and submitted at check-in no later than 5:00 p.m. Tuesday.

- D. Judging Standards: 600-point total. 1-100 points possible for each of the following categories:
 - a. Garment fit
 - b. Entrant’s poise
 - c. Control of animal
 - d. Garment style and/or fashion
 - e. Entrant’s appearance
 - f. Presentation and appearance of animal

Little Shepherds Showmanship Contest

The Little Shepherds Showmanship Contest will be held at the Washington County Fair on Sunday, July 31st at approximately 10:30 a.m. after the Little Squealers Showmanship Contest in the Farm Progress Arena. The contest is open to children 5 to 9 years old who are not yet enrolled in 4-H.

Children/Parents will be required to make arrangements to use one of the Junior or Open sheep show animals that are already at the Fairgrounds as there is not room for additional animals in the barn. Safety is important, so you are asked to use animals that tended to behave well during the sheep show. All lambs will be shown on halter. Children will be divided into groups based on the participation level and at the discretion of the Sheep Superintendent. Children will be judged on their basic showmanship skills. The comments made by the judge will include tips on improving these skills. Ribbons will be awarded to all participants.

All applications and permission slips are due no later than June 30th, 2022

Parents should come to the Farm Progress Arena 1 hour before the contest to help set up the ring and walkway. There is also a mandatory meeting 30 minutes before the event start time.

Please return your entry by June 30th, 2022. Return the completed and signed Application and Permission Slip below to Carol Strupp (6268 Arthur Road Hartford, WI 53027).
